Applicant's Agreement

I have read and agree with the Timber Creek Camps Standard of Faith and Christian Living (seen below). I am willing to abide by these standards.

In applying for work at Timber Creek, I am seeking great responsibility as well as opportunity. I understand that I am subject to the regulations of the ministry and camp, and I will abide by them. I acknowledge that BreakThru Ministries through Timber Creek Camp can and will run a background check as needed. I am willing to serve and extend myself to attain the goals of BreakThru Ministries and Timber Creek Camp for the glory of God.

I affirm that all information given herein is true, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge. I realize that any misrepresentation or misinformation may be sufficient cause for dismissal from participation as a staff member.

BreakThru Ministries/Timber Creek Camp Standard of Christian Living

Effective leadership is a fundamental reality for any ministry seeking to impact lives. The principles of such leadership are thoroughly outlined in the Word of God and highlighted by Christ in his time with the disciples. Why the emphasis? The light of leadership shines brightly because the testimony of the Christian lifestyle and worldview do impact lives. All members of the leadership team (staff, trustees, and volunteers) of BreakThru Ministries and Timber Creek Camp are to be certain of their relationship with Christ and be joyful in it. Their lives should be without question because those who lead, especially young lives, carry a significant responsibility.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we are all called to "be holy" as He is holy. Part of the pursuit of holiness of heart and life is maintaining purity in all aspects of life (word, thought, and deed). This includes maintaining a life free from alcohol, drugs, tobacco, gambling, and pornography. Moreover, this purity should also affect out language (Eph. 4:29, Prov. 4:24, Phil 2:14) in use of words to encourage and "build up" as opposed to being detrimental and "tearing down" those with whom we work and minister. Likewise, attention to purity is to be maintained in determining appropriate dress. The clothing we wear must be modest, decent, and proper. It should in no way be offensive or imitate the sensual direction of our culture. No staff member should ever be a "stumbling block" for any participants in any of the programs of BreakThru Ministries or Timber Creek Camp.

The pursuit of holiness had far more to do with who we are rather than particular activity from which we abstain. Each and every member of the leadership is expected to daily enhance his or her relationship with Christ by spending appropriate time and effort in the following means of grace: prayer, biblical studies, service, worship, and fellowship. As a staff, we are mindful that not all members will be at a uniform place in their walk with the Lord. Only by the strength of the Holy Spirit can any of the members be the person and live the life Christ has called us to including ministering to people through the various opportunities at BreakThru and Timber Creek.

God's service requires all to be clean vessels, and He promises and provides the grace and strength necessary to be such. Christ calls men and women who can stand before others with a clearly evident Christian testimony.
